1. Why a whole school approach to literacy?

There is a large number of schools within the Junior Certificate School Programme (JCSP) with a concentration of students with poor literacy skills. Schools have identified poor literacy skills as a key reason why young people drop out of school. It explains why some young people get very little out of school despite succeeding in the examinations.

There are no easy solutions to this problem but recent research in Ireland and internationally points us in certain directions. In the Summary Report on Remedial Education (1999) Shiel & Morgan recommend that 'schools in which low achievement in English and/or Mathematics is a serious problem should be made aware of school-wide restructuring programmes that have been shown to increase achievement across all pupils in these subjects'. More recently the findings of the Ready for Life? (PISA) study (2001) by Shiel, Cosgrove, Sofroniou and Kelly 'suggest a need to implement focused school-wide and individual programmes in second level schools that are designed to target students with serious reading difficulties and, where such programmes are already in place (e.g. learning support), to examine their effectiveness'. A focused approach to addressing the needs of students with very low achievement in mathematics and science, where language skills are also implicated, was recommended.

Research on what works in other countries indicates that, within post primary, a school-wide approach starting in first year is very effective in improving literacy standards. The consolidation and development of basic skills in first year will prepare the child for success at second level and beyond. While students with a reading age below 8 are usually offered individualised programmes by the learning support teachers, those with a reading age between 8 - 10, to whom learning support resources cannot usually stretch, respond very well to a school-wide approach. Schools have had success by broadening the awareness of reading among all the teachers and encouraging the whole staff to analyse the reading needs of their subject. For the students this means that instead of a short withdrawal period once or twice a week when reading is attended to, they have an opportunity to work successfully at their subject all week long.

In their research report, What works in Secondary School (1999) the Basic Skills Agency outlines some of the elements of a successful school-wide approach. These include:

- Targeting first year students
- Focus on students with 8.00 - 10.00 R.A.
- Paired Reading/Mentoring
- Professional development for teachers
- Focus on developing a range of reading strategies and skills
- Provide specific individualised instruction
- Follow up in SUBJECT classrooms
- Regular use of assessment
- Provide frequent opportunities to practice reading
- Regular use of IT for individualised programmes

2. Why a School Literacy Plan?

For the success of a school-wide literacy approach that caters for all of the learners there needs to be a whole school commitment to literacy. This means the development of shared goals and vision of the staff around literacy and the communication of those goals in a systematic way. The process of developing a literacy plan allows, and indeed requires, staff to play an active role in planning for improvement.

In order for this to come about, staff will need time to discuss issues and 'own' policies and ideas, time to develop:

1. a cohesive definition of literacy
2. a whole school literacy policy
3. a whole school acceptance and understanding of what should be the school's short term literacy aim.

Schools with a high concentration of students who are underachieving in literacy will need to get agreement among teachers that literacy development will become a priority. Establishing literacy as a priority will mean:

1. setting up/supporting the appropriate structures
2. creating a reading ethos
3. making literacy part of the curriculum.

An important part of the plan is the opportunity to look at the literacy provision currently available in the school and the kind of practices that may be common but are less than ideal. Audits of literacy practices in English schools have thrown up some interesting results

Typical findings:

- lots of copying from blackboards
- much unchallenging comprehension work
- pupils encounter a minimal range of texts
- reading is often restricted to short bursts of a few seconds
- writing usually consists of very short unfinished pieces
- pupils aren't taught how to use reference materials
- widespread use of worksheets - often ill-designed
- insufficient opportunities for oral work
- good practice that isn't shared

The development of the school literacy plan is an opportunity to address these practices. It will also serve as the reference point by which to measure progress and to keep the literacy work on track.

3. Literacy Committee/Working Party

- The group would be responsible for developing and implementing a plan for a whole school approach to literacy development - encompassing professional development for teachers, short-term interventions and a school-wide enrichment policy.
- A literacy co-ordinator could implement and drive the plan and liaise with the subject departments & teachers, learning support, management, and the feeder primary schools.
- Establish calendar for literacy development.
- Put in place structures to review, monitor and evaluate the literacy development plan.
- Drive the school literacy development plan focusing particularly on first year students and on developing a whole school aspect.

The core group could meet regularly and could be comprised of the following:

- Literacy co-ordinator
- JCSP co-ordinator
- School Completion co-ordinator
- Head of English
- JCSP Librarian if in place
- Learning support /resource teacher
- Management representative

The committee could liaise with some of the following:

- Home School Community Liaison co-ordinator
- Class Tutor
- Parent/Home visitor
- Practical teacher - Woodwork, Metalwork, Home Economics, Art, Science

4. The Planning Process

Stage 1

Where are we now?	Establish baseline data <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An audit of current provision (with the help of the Junior Certificate School Programme)</li> <li>• The extent of existing literacy problems</li> <li>• The impact poor literacy is having on:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Learning and teaching</li> <li>• Student absenteeism</li> <li>• Student behaviour</li> <li>• Progression into senior cycle</li> <li>• Results in examinations</li> <li>• Student drop-out</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
Where do we want to get to?	Identify targets and success criteria
What are our needs?	Identify staff training needs Identify resources required

Stage 2

Organise professional development	Meeting with the JCSP support service to tailor the in-service sessions to meet the identified needs of the school: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Whole-staff</li> <li>• Core team</li> <li>• Subject department</li> <li>• Sub-section of staff (parallel session on Numeracy for rest of staff)</li> </ul>
Initial full staff training	Initial in-service - full day Key strategies discussed by staff Strategies selected for implementation (or selection may take place later - see Stage 4 below) Decision made to set up a working group Monitoring and review dates decided Set up the working group

Establish a Working Group	Agree the role of the working group, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Acquire JCSP resources</li> <li>• Purchase books</li> <li>• Establish further training needs.</li> <li>• Identify who will organise training.</li> <li>• Support the strategy that has been chosen.</li> <li>• Monitor the progress of the strategy</li> <li>• Review and evaluate.</li> <li>• Advise staff of outcomes</li> </ul> Agree the working conditions of the working group, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• When/how often will the group meet?</li> <li>• With whom will the group consult?</li> <li>• To whom will the group report? When?</li> </ul> Assign Lead Responsibility within the working group
---------------------------	---

Stage 4

Plan and implement strategies	Identify target group of students (agree selection criteria): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• small group</li> <li>• whole class</li> <li>• year group</li> <li>• whole school</li> </ul> Select strategies for implementation (if not already chosen in Stage 2) Plan the implementation of strategies selected [Action Plan for each]

Stage 5

Monitor and Review	Implement each strategy with the target group Agree and implement the involvement of parents in the strategies The working group: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• monitors progress regularly (at agreed intervals)</li> <li>• reviews progress, with those implementing the strategy</li> <li>• reports back to staff (at review meeting)</li> </ul>
--------------------	---

Stage 6

Evaluate impact	Evaluate the impact of the strategy with respect to the success criteria and new emerging data
Plan the next step	Decide whether to continue with strategy Decide whether to consider a different strategy as well/instead
Plan subsequent steps	Identify further training needs, if appropriate Identify and purchase any other resources needed Consider other initiatives to support the literacy programme Build in systematic review and reporting back Document and disseminate decisions, actions and evaluations

5. Writing the Literacy Element of the School Plan

Some Factors to Consider

Developing a Literacy-rich Environment:

- Literate environments in the classrooms
  - Provision of literacy materials
  - Range of books on offer
  - Type of displays created
- Creation of a print rich environment
  - In the public areas of the school
  - Reading posters
  - Book choice corner or boards

Teaching and learning

- Shared vision
- Shared set of goals in the school
- Clarity around who is responsible for teaching literacy
- Clarity for teachers around standards expected and achievable success outcomes
- Understanding of terminology - Reading age etc

Literacy Development Planning

- Establishing a vision
- Setting achievable targets and learning outcomes
- Setting indicators of success
- Selecting strategies/actions to improve literacy, e.g.
  - Providing formative feedback to students
  - Implementing consistent approaches to writing, key words, punctuation, etc.
  - Marking policy
  - Catering for the development of basic skills in literacy
  - Introducing a literacy day/week
  - Involvement in JCSP Literacy Initiatives
  - Developing and implementing literacy projects
  - Accessing relevant continuous professional development
  - Providing opportunities for feedback to staff by teachers who attended off-site professional development in-service
  - Involvement of parents
  - Involvement of support agencies

- Investigation of other developmental strands, such as teacher-driven action research inquiry into practice (See pages XXXXXX of this booklet for suggestions re strategies/actions)
- Setting time scale for implementation
- Identifying key personnel to initiate action
- Sourcing and acquiring resources needed
- Monitoring progress
  - Regular reviewing and record keeping
  - Monitoring tests, house exams and State exams
  - Providing feedback to students
- Evaluating impact of strategies

Areas for development

- Provision for pupils with literacy difficulties
- Reading for pleasure
- Written work - creative and curriculum related
- Literacy events in the school
- Information skills
- Interventions
- School/Family/Community

Staff development

- School based
- Strategies for all teachers
- English department
- Ongoing
- Regularly revised
- Support from outside school

6. Preliminary Review of Literacy Provision

The following is a list of review questions, which could be used to establish the needs of the students in relation to literacy and how those needs are currently being met. Many of the questions - those related to reading ages etc - can be answered by the learning support/resource teachers, while others are broader and require an overview of students' achievement and school structures. Ideally, this preliminary review would be tailored to the particular school and carried out by the literacy development group.

Each section of the review has a summary box, indicating if further action is required, which will assist with planning. A more general review exercise for the full staff could then be used at a staff planning meeting.

C. Range of Resources

Student Reading Resources

1. What reading materials available to the students?

- High Interest
- Age Appropriate
- At correct reading age level
- Relevant
- Fiction
- Non - Fiction

2. Is there a reading corner/reading area/book box scheme, other ?

---

D. Classroom Resources

1. What resources are available to support literacy in the classroom? Example:

- Keyword materials
- Writing Frames
- Word Banks
- Reading materials
- Subject Topic Boxes
- Audio Books
- Word Walls
- Dictionaries/Thesaurus
- Catalogues
- JCSP Materials

---

E. Time for Reading

1. Is there time for reading during the week for the students who are underachieving?
i.e. 20 minutes reading time 3 times per week.

2. Is there timetabled Time for Reading in the school?

---

3. Does the school run reading challenges to encourage regular reading?

---

---

4. Does the school organise or participate in a literacy or Book event?

Never       Annually       Regularly

5. Do any students have a weekly library period?

F. Teacher training

Do the teachers need assistance in establishing the literacy demands in their subject area?

Do the subject teachers feel they need training in literacy support?

---

Have they received any training in this area?

Have any teachers, other than the learning support/resource teachers, received training in any skills they could use to support literacy in their subject area?

---

Has the school surveyed in order to establish further training needs?  Yes  No

If yes, what further training do teachers require?

G. Student Access to Examination Levels

1. Are poor reading levels a major consideration when deciding the examinations level in some subject areas for students?

2. If students' reading levels improved could they be entered for different examination levels than they currently are?

---

3. How do the standards achieved in the Junior Certificate by our students compare to the national average? What can be learned from this?

---

H. Interventions

What JCSP initiatives are run in the school?

- Paired Reading
- Readalong
- Word Millionaire
- Reading Challenge
- Spelling Challenge
- Reading Programme (SRA) in the English Class
- Subject Topic Boxes
- Drop Everything and Read (DEAR)
- Celebrations
- Keyword Strategy
- Author in Residence
- Make A Book
- Storytelling
- Arts Initiatives
- Film Initiative
- Primary Picture Book

I. Establishing needs

1. Would many subject teachers regard the development of literacy as part of their role?

---

2. Are the literacy levels of the majority of students in the school satisfactory?  Yes  No

If so, how do you know?

3. Is there a perceived need for a whole school approach?

---

4. Is there a literacy policy in place?

---

5. Is there agreement on the causes of underachievement in literacy in the school?

---

7. JCSP Literacy Related Initiatives & Materials

Keyword Initiative

This strategy supports the pre-teaching of keywords and concepts of the topic ahead as well as reinforcement and revisions exercises. Materials are available to support the initiatives:

- Keyword notebooks
- Keyword wall charts
- Keyword folder inserts
- Keyword wall magnets
- Keyword bookmarks
- Key Spelling Bookmarks.

Reading Challenge Initiative

Reading Challenge is a short-term reading intervention, developed by a JCSP School Co-ordinator. Students are challenged to read a book a week for six weeks. Parental involvement is an element of this intervention. Reading Challenge motivates students to read and review books; they also track their reading and are awarded for successfully meeting the Reading Challenge. The following support materials are provided to schools:

- 'Reading Challenge' teacher guidelines
- Students book review 'Reading Challenge' booklet
- Reading Challenge student achievement certificate
- Reading Challenge bookmarks
- Reading Challenge wall poster

"Who Wants to Be a Word Millionaire?" Initiative

"Who Wants to be a Word Millionaire?" is a short-term reading intervention, which challenges a class group of JCSP students to engage in recreational reading, at home with the support of their parents, and to collectively read a total of one million words (or more) over a six-week period. The following support materials are provided to schools: Teacher guidelines, "Who Wants to Be a Word Millionaire?" achievement certificates and "Who Wants to Be a Word Millionaire?" wall charts for entering and tracking the cumulative totals of words read to date.

Readalong Initiative

Readalong initiative supports students in reading for pleasure, using Walkmans/MP3 players and books on tape/CD/audio downloads. Readalong is a short-term reading intervention where students read while listening to the book being read on tape or CD. Students can also review the books and track their reading. After completing a six-week Readalong programme students are awarded for their achievement. The following support materials are provided to schools:

- Teacher Guidelines for Readalong
- Information on Audio books & Suppliers
- Student book review booklet
- Reading Project Achievement Certificate
- A variety of bookmarks

Paired Reading Initiative

Paired Reading is a short-term reading intervention. Student reading is supported by a tutor. Paired Reading runs 3 to 4 times a week for six weeks. A Paired Reading initiative can work where JCSP students act as tutors to a primary school class, or senior cycle students are reading tutors for a JCSP class or parents work with students as tutors. Students are awarded for successfully taking part in this reading project. The following support materials are provided to schools:

- Paired Reading teacher guidelines
- Paired Reading tutor training video 'Everyone Reads'
- Paired Reading student achievement certificate
- A Paired Reading Student Folder
- Paired Reading tutor achievement certificate
- A variety of bookmarks.
- A Paired Reading Poster

Reading Programme in the English Classrooms Initiative

This initiative enables schools to use a reading laboratory e.g. SRA outside of the learning support context with JCSP students. It is envisaged that schools would run a six week programme using a reading laboratory resource, aimed at accelerating reading and providing students with a regular opportunity to read at their own level and track their progress. Schools are requested to select first year JCSP students to participate in this initiative.

Subject Topic Boxes

Many textbooks have readability levels of 14+ making them relatively inaccessible to students who are underachieving in reading. With this initiative schools have the opportunity to purchase topic books and resources related to their individual subject areas with a wide range of reading levels. This will allow students to read about a topic that interests them and support the work of the textbook. This will be relevant to all subjects e.g. Materials Technology Wood, Materials Technology Metal, History, Geography, Home Economics, Science etc.

Spelling Challenge

This initiative is aimed at subject teachers interested in improving the spelling of key vocabulary offering the students a challenge in order to motivate the learning process. Spelling journals are available for the challenge.

Drop Everything and Read (DEAR)

This is a great way of promoting reading across the whole school or year group. The idea is that at a set time, everyday for a week, everyone stops what they are doing and reads for fifteen minutes. It is a shared experience, gets people talking about books and reading while conveying a strong message that the school believes in reading. Students read, principals read, teachers in the staff room read, phones are taken off the hook and secretaries read, the caretaker reads and all visitors to the school are offered books to read or magazines to look through. This initiative can be used to organise boxes of books, magazines, and newspapers per class, as well as one for the staffroom and office!

Author in Residence Initiative

This programme particularly focuses on creative writing skills development, where an author works for a period of time with a group of students. The aim is to produce a piece of work that could then be exhibited as part of the Make A Book exhibition. Schools could link with Poetry Ireland Writers in Schools Residencies Scheme. This scheme is based on the idea of a short residency by a writer to a school, working closely with one teacher and with the same class or group of students. Many projects have a strong local flavour, in that the writer is local. The thinking behind these residencies is to take a more developmental approach towards the teaching of literature and to develop approaches, which enable the participants to explore the world of the imagination over a longer period of time, in the company of an experienced writer. The participation of a key teacher and the development of a working alliance between the teacher and writer is fundamental to this approach.

Storytelling

This initiative allows schools to invite an outside storyteller/seanachai, and introduces the art of storytelling. Sharing and creating a common experience in storytelling aids in the development of oral language patterns and listening skills. Students need a wide experience with spoken language if they are to achieve success in reading. This initiative could be part of a wider project involving students creating and telling their own stories. The recordings of student stories could be entered for Make A Book.

Primary Picture Books

JCSP students link with a primary school class and choose an appropriate picture book to read to the students. The students are prepared to visit the primary school and each student is assigned a reading partner to whom they read the book. On completion, each student presents the book to their reading partner.

Reading Corners

This initiative is used to create a classroom reading corner with books on a variety of topics, and a range of reading levels. The space provides a wide range of genres, both fiction and non-fiction, including such reference books as dictionaries, thesauruses, and encyclopaedias etc. Bean bags and Walkmans could also be a feature of the classroom reading corner.

Digital storytelling and Oral Language Development

Everyone has a story to tell. Digital storytelling revolves around the idea of combining telling stories with any of a variety of available multimedia tools. Digital stories are short films made by students using computers and photographs, drawings, sound etc. The short film/video can be created by an individual or group of students.

General Literacy Initiatives

This allows schools to come up with their own imaginative response to the literacy difficulties that they are encountering among their students. It is hoped to encourage some projects using mobile phones and texting to be linked to literacy improvement.

Make A Book

An annual event which brings together several strands of the JCSP: it provides an audience and motivation for student writing, it brings teachers together in cross curricular work and it celebrates students' work. The annual exhibition features a colourful and exciting range of student 'made' books and displays.

8. Staff Review of Literacy - Scaling Exercise

This is an exercise that can be given to all the teachers at a staff or literacy planning meeting. It is based on the Solution Focus Framework of the 0 to 10 scale, where 10 equals the achievement of all goals and zero is the worst possible scenario. The exercise can be useful in helping staff to identify what they feel positive about and in building on what they are already doing well.

In this case 10 equals:

Our literacy provision caters adequately for the needs of all the students and 0 equals:

Our literacy provision does not adequately cater for the needs of all our students.

The teachers are first asked to rate the school's current position on the scale in relation to literacy and to mark it on the scale. Then they are asked to think about the resources and interventions already in place that justify that position e.g. "If you put a 4, why is it a 4 rather than a 3 or a 5. What's already in place and working well that justifies a 4?" Give some examples of what might be in place and ask the teachers to suggest some things that are working well enough to warrant a 4 rather than a 3. It could be any of the following:

- well organised learning support
- a good supply of books
- staff have had training
- supportive parents
- local public library
- a good attitude towards reading among the pupils
- the Reading Challenge is popular
- Paired Reading programme is well established

Any of these could be stopping the school from slipping one point lower down the scale. There could be considerable divergence among the staff with some giving a rating of 8 and others 2 or 3 and some teachers may be reluctant to disclose their 'score'. This has to be handled carefully as it could possibly be taken personally by some member of staff. The teachers are asked to list the factors that justify the rating on the left side of the page.

Moving up the scale

Then on the right side they are asked to describe what the next point on the scale would look like.

If you woke up tomorrow and found that your school had moved up one point on the scale how would you know?

They could be given examples of changes. The more specific the change the better, e.g. it might be that the:

- Subject teachers now use a keyword approach between mid term and Christmas
- School had a bigger selection of suitable books.

Staff Review of Literacy - Scaling Exercise

A School-Wide Approach to Literacy

Our literacy provision caters adequately for the needs of all the students

10

Why we're at 4

Well organised learning support

A good supply of books
Staff have had training
The Reading Challenge is popular

Paired Reading programme well established

If we were at 5 it would look like this:

Subject teachers use a keyword approach and materials

How would you know?

What would be the difference?

1. If you scored e.g. 4, give reasons why it is a 4 not a 3 or a 5 - List the factors.....
2. Suggest one change that could bring your score to 5

9. Integration of literacy development with other school activities

Literacy development, to be effective, should take cognisance of the need to integrate a personal development programme into the literacy and numeracy strategy. This could be achieved through involvement in an outdoor education programme, JCSP formative profiling and involvement in sport and fine art.

The activities would dovetail into the specific JCSP work such as JCSP Initiatives:

- The Reading Challenge
- Readalong
- Paired Reading
- Cross Age Peer Tutoring
- Drop Everything And Read (DEAR)
- Word Millionaire
- Arts Initiative
- Reading Programme (SRA) in the English Class
- Make a Book
- Film Initiative
- Celebrations
- Keyword Strategy
- Spelling Challenges
- Reading corners
- Primary Picture Books
- Subject Topic Boxes
- Author in Residence
- Storytelling

Activities: First year focus for students who are seriously underachieving in literacy

Some ideas for first year literacy development:

- 1 class per day devoted to literacy development
- Time for reading at least 3 times per week
- Twenty timetabled minutes per day where students read at their own level
- Small teaching team
- Formative profiling
- D.E.A.R. programme (Drop Everything And Read)
- Oral language development programme
- Listening skills training programme
- Writing skills support
- Library/Information-skills
- Critical literacy skills training module
- Spelling Policy
- Marking policy
- Literacy Day/Week
- Book boxes in the classroom
- Consistent approach to writing, layout, punctuation
- Individualised literacy programmes where appropriate (particularly reading age under 8)
- Use of appropriate IT software
- Team teaching
- Access to books

10. Writing the literacy element of the School Plan

Factors to consider

Literate environments in the classrooms

- Provision of literacy materials
- Range of books on offer
- Type of displays created

Creation of a print rich environment

- In the public areas of the school
- Reading posters
- Up to date book-related displays
- Reading corner
- Library

Teaching and learning

- Shared set of goals in the school
- Who is responsible for teaching literacy?
- Clarity for teachers around standards expected and achieved
- Understanding of terminology - Reading age etc

Literacy/Numeracy development plan

- Setting targets
- Success indicator
- Resources required
- Time scale for implementation
- Key person to initiate action
- Record keeping
- Feedback to students
- Review

Areas for development

- Pupils with literacy difficulties
- Reading for pleasure
- Written work - creative and curriculum related
- Literacy events in the school
- Information & computer literacy skills
- Interventions
- School/Family/Community

Staff development

- School based
- Strategies for all teachers
- English department
- ICT department
- Ongoing
- Regularly revised
- Support from outside school
